

Attorneys

- Debra L. Boje
- Morris G. "Skip" Miller
- Carl Schuster
- Harry B. Smith

Foundations and Nonprofit Entities

The nonprofit, tax-exempt sector has its own unique challenges and has come under increasing scrutiny and regulation in recent years. Ruden McClosky's Tax attorneys offer a broad range of consulting services and representation as general counsel to foundations, charities and numerous other nonprofit entities, enabling these organizations to focus on achieving their goals.

Our attorneys assist nonprofit clients, from offering guidance in day-to-day operational matters to maximizing the benefit of their tax-exempt status, including:

- Administrative, governmental and regulatory issues
- Antitrust
- Benefit programs
- Board governance issues
- Contracts for meetings and conventions
- Employment and personnel issues
- For-profit subsidiaries
- Membership issues and retention
- Political Action Committees
- Operating documents
- Real Estate transactions
- State and Federal legislation
- Tax and tax-exempt issues
- Trade shows and contracts
- Trademarks, patents and copyrights
- Unrelated business income
- Vendor contracts