

Attorneys

- Dale A. Bruschi
- Kelly H. Kolb
- Peter Sobota

Aviation

Ruden McClosky's Aviation Practice Group serves aviation businesses throughout Florida. Our attorneys provide a comprehensive suite of legal services that can help aviation businesses meet a variety of challenges and position them for success. Several members of the Aviation Practice Group are licensed pilots, ranging from light sport to commercial with multi-engine and instrument ratings, and understand the wide-ranging issues that affect aviation businesses.

As a full-service Florida law firm, we provide Land Use and Development, Corporate, Finance, Litigation, Labor & Employment, Intellectual Property, Tax, and other legal services for our aviation industry clients. Our aviation practice attorneys routinely address the varied and specific needs of aviation industry clients, encompassing transactional, regulatory, and litigation matters, including:

Facility Operations

- Business entity evaluation and setup
- Facility ground-lease negotiations
- Sublease agreements
- Vendor agreements
- Insurance requirements
- Regulatory compliance
- Signage and advertising
- Risk management

Labor and Employment

- Employee manuals
- Employment agreements
- Wage and hour violations
- Sexual harassment
- Employment discrimination
- OSHA

Aircraft

- Hangar and tie-down agreements
- Fuel purchase and sale agreements
- Facility use agreements

Development and Construction

- Land use modification and zoning compliance
- FAA regulatory compliance

Aviation (Continued)

- Finance negotiation and acquisition
- Permitting
- Contractor agreements

Enforcement and Collection

- General litigation support
- Aircraft liens
- Aircraft levy and sale
- Evictions