Mr. Rayman is part of the Firm's Marital & Family Law Practice Group and Commercial Litigation Department. He concentrates his family practice in matrimonial law matters such as dissolution of marriage, alimony, child custody and support, post-judgment modifications and the drafting of pre-and post-nuptial agreements. Mr. Rayman's commercial litigation focus is in the areas of general and complex banking, real estate, and probate matters.

Previously, he was a law clerk for Florida Supreme Court Justice R. Fred Lewis. While in law school, he was a member of Law Review, the legal honor fraternity Phi Delta Phi, as well as the Mock Trial Competition Team.
