Staffing

Florida's staffing industry comprises staffing companies that employ almost one million people in temporary or contract work each year, and generates over $3 billion in payroll annually. Ruden McClosky's Staffing and Labor & Employment attorneys have experience working with companies of all sizes in diverse staffing niches such as IT, financial, health care, clerical, technical, professional and the funding area. Our attorneys understand the nuances of the staffing industry and recognize the concerns of entrepreneurs, company management and general counsel in the industry.

We serve companies that are engaged in meeting a variety of staffing needs including:

- Contract Services
- Temporary Help
- Long-Term Help
- Placement Services
- Employee Leasing (PEO)
- Payroll Services
- Managed Services
- Daily Pay
- Permanent
- Funding
