

Attorneys & Consultants

- Debra L. Boje
- Leticia Hernandez
- Carolyn M. Kershner
- Brent D. Klein
- Kristen M. Lynch
- Marianella Morales
Rojas
- Glen A. Stankee

State, Federal and International Tax

STATE TAXATION

Every real property transaction and most business planning has state taxation implications. The Firm's Tax attorneys are regularly involved in:

- Structuring transactions to minimize Florida documentary stamp and intangible taxes, and advising on property tax assessment procedures;
- Obtaining technical assistance advisements and other rulings and positions from the Florida Department of Revenue;

Assisting homeowners with regards to the Florida homestead laws and the "Save Our Homes" cap on increase in assessments.

INTERNATIONAL TAXATION

In recent years there has been a proliferation of investments by foreign individuals and entities in Florida, as well as business opportunities for U.S. taxpayers overseas. As a result of representing clients in various numerous international tax matters, we are skilled in:

- Analyzing and structuring foreign and domestic entities and transactions for foreign taxpayers conducting business in the United States to minimize their worldwide estate and income tax exposure;
- Valuating and structuring foreign and domestic entities and transactions for U.S. taxpayers conducting business overseas; and
- Counseling clients on tax compliance matters in the U.S. and abroad.